Name	Response	Date Submitted	Where Form Is Used respondent1	It was unclear what was expected between the following two items: Implementation Plan (timeline) Steps - what are the steps in implementing this action?:	11/02/2010 11:44 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010 respondent2	The plan is not completely finished. Also, I am still working with instructors in the Division regarding how to access and navigate TaskStream. I really will have a better understanding of if the process works once the instructors in the Division begin the process. I love the fact that now we can easily access the data we need to assist our Division with making "informed" decisions.	11/05/2010 5:56 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent3	I find the whole structure and associated thought process very confusing. Despite several 1-one-1 sessions with Dave, I can't seem to understand it. Seems very counterintuitive, and requires far too much switching back and forth between screens.	11/05/2010 6:49 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent4	What is AMS?	11/01/2010 7:34 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent5	Its not so much AMS as the lack of guidance form my immediate superior as to what is expected. There is still not a widely understood process for planning, and still the feeling of building the ship while trying to compete in a boat race...	11/05/2010 1:30 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent6	N/A	11/02/2010 9:08 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010

respondent8	1. Structure the program so that "projects" can be proposed that include all categories (facilities, personnel, curriculum, etc.), or add a mechanism to link related items across categories. 2. Allow items to be moved from one category to another rather than needing to cut & paste.	11/05/2010 2:46 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010 respondent9	From the begining of the process, we should have followed AMS the way it was initially designed and presented by the IPR staff. Unfortunately, our campus has bureaucrat(s) who feel/felt compelled to "gum up" the process by adding in their "two cents." This type of micromanagement on our campus needs to be cautioned against, for it is distracting and counter productive.	11/05/2010 7:56 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010 respondent10	It would be helpful if there was a way to navigate through each plan that is opened without having to go to the home page, selecting the plan, then selecting the 2010-2011 assessment, etc. If there were tabs on top that identified which plans you had open and allowed you to click on a tab and view that plan and click on another tab and view that plan it would be very time efficient.	11/01/2010 1:55 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010 respondent11	When printing the plan it duplicates the create action items in the track action items. Perhaps this is due to my inability to submit the plan since no reviewer has been assigned yet. I would think that status could just be tagged on after the action items in the create section. Or, just have an Action Items section where all information is aggregated.	11/01/2010 2:41 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010 respondent12	Allow users to select sections and input actions without switching back and forth. Allow read-only access. Make input boxes much bigger. Allow moving actions from one type/category to another. Provide an undo command. Allow resorting on all levels. Allow resorting based on importance. Allow spell check after input. Provide reminder labels for the category you're in when you're inputting actions. For example a left-hand window of all the categories with the one you're in marked.	11/01/2010 4:40 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent13	No response	11/01/2010 2:25 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent14	I would expand the catagories a little bit. CURRICULUM doesn't quite envelope some of the action items that don't fit in other catagories..	11/01/2010 2:31 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent15	The on-line definitions were somewhat vague. I couldn't remember what to do after I received the in-person training. That is probably more my fault than the software but I thought it would be very simple to log in and just use it.	11/01/2010 6:15 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010

respondent16	A user's manual and/or step-by-step written instructions might have been helpful in the beginning for the initial transition.	11/02/2010 8:25 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent17	NO CHANGES	11/02/2010 8:27 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent18	I really needed to be walked through the process because there was no how-to document. I understood the conceptual part of the training (e.g., the purpose of each section of the plan), but I had trouble navigating the site prior to the one-on-one.	11/02/2010 10:26 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010 respondent19	There should be a "feedback" section where you can actually see that someone reviewed it and provided feedback.	11/05/2010 2:21 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent20	It is detrimental that associated parties attend the meetings and fully cooperate.	11/02/2010 10:01 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent21	Not enough time to get everything done.	11/02/2010 9:30 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent22	A bit of an easier way to change the "catagories" without leaving the screen where I would input action items...I found myself revising the catagories and such but having to go back and forth between the screens to make the changes.	11/01/2010 2:05 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent23	Don't feel that I have had sufficient experience with it as of yet.	11/01/2010 3:28 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010

respondent9	it's confusing	11/01/2010 2:27 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent10	The AMS software is not a one-time or once a year application. It is designed to allow me to view my operational plan as a living document that I can go in an update as we progress on our action items.	11/01/2010 5:54 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010

respondent13	Simple application management of document.	11/05/2010 7:56 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent14	This software allows for the input of information and does not require excess information to be put it. It wants the facts, what do you need, how will you get it and what will it cost. This allows for easy data entry into the program.	11/01/2010 1:55 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent15	The AMS software is really dependent upon one's knowledge of how to do project planning, not the generic planning that was done in the past. If one does not know how to do the statement of work, estimation of timelines, assignments, and task steps one will really be at a disadvantage.	11/01/2010 2:41 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010

respondent24	I learned that technology can be a great tool, but human understanding about how to use it most effectively remains critical.	11/02/2010 10:26 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010 respondent25	Perseverance pays off. In the beginning I had problems navigating through the system, but the more I used it consistently, the easier it became. I actually found myself enjoying the process.	11/04/2010 1:05 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent26	I found that this is a better way to plan for the future.	11/08/2010 10:44 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent27	No particular lesson was learned. It did create an opportunity for my team to discuss goals and planning.	11/05/2010 2:21 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010

respondent29	Need to plan.	11/02/2010 9:30 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent30	Because my position is a new one I have a lot to refine, change and develop. With so much to accomplish I was able to use AMS software to document goals and achievements, develop my approach, and most importantly prioritize. Additionally, it allows others to see what I'm doing this year and hopefully give key players a better understanding of my needs as far as partnerships and resources so I may accomplish those goals.	11/01/2010 2:05 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010

respondent31	Don't feel that I have had spent enough time with it to make a constructive comment. IT appears to have a good work flow.	11/01/2010 3:28 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010

respondent1	Communicate to all areas of the division tactical plan's action items, assign tasks to areas and individuals, track progress, hold areas accountable for carrying out assigned tasks to completion within specified dates.	11/02/2010 11:44 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010 respondent2	The main issue is getting Division faculty to re-think the planning process. We need time to examine and discuss the mission and functions of the college, along with the mission and learning outcomes of the Division's programs. For the first time, instructors have to look at the data and reflect on if students enrolled in our classes or programs are successful. The focus is not on looking for funding for projects. Now, we have to plan around our programs.	11/05/2010 5:56 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
respondent3	I will get to the plan when I have time. I don't have time enough to do everything that needs to be done. Far too much going on these days with all the changes we are all pursuing. I'm exhausted, and it's hard to motivate doing this particular project; it would seem to have far less impact on the issues I find important than all the other things I need to do.	11/05/2010 6:49 AM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010

respondent10	Needed to dedicate a good amount of "heads down" time so that thought processes could be carried through and to enable continuity within the plan. Will need to expand these higher level actions into the operational actions within the AMS and then duplicate these actions into the department's project management system that provides a much greater detail of management and tracking.	11/01/2010 2:41 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010

respondent23	The biggest impact was for me to realize I can't do it all in one year and I must prioritize to determine what items will be done this year and next. Being able to place something on the next year in advance is very helpful. Maybe I know it can't be done this year, but I still want to document it and plan for it in the future.	11/01/2010 2:05 PM (PST)	Survey Launch: Planning Survey 2010
