

Fall Student Survey 2012 – ASPCC – Student Responses

The Fall Student Survey is a classroom based survey distributed to a random sample of course sections during the 10th and 11th week of the academic term. The survey is administered by Faculty and returned to the Office of Institutional Effectiveness (OIE) for processing and analysis. The Fall 2012 survey was distributed to 87 sections with an enrollment of 2467 students for a response rate of approximately 60%. The table and chart below display the results from the 11 questions about students' knowledge of and engagement with ASPCC.
